

BACP SURVIVE THE ECONOMY

A FREE Resource Event for Everyday People—Everyday Consumers

Protect your Home, Money and Family!

Fraud and deceptive practices become prevalent during the tough economy. With people losing their jobs and their homes, financial stability is the greatest concern for consumers and the public at large. Don't miss these FREE workshops.

GET ADVICE, RESOURCES AND INFORMATION

Protect your home

Home foreclosure
Mortgage assistance
Mortgage fraud

Protect your money

Credit repair
Debt consolidation
Check and credit fraud

Protect your family

Consumer rights
Consumer tips
Reporting fraud

FREE Workshops

Wednesdays, 5:30 – 8:00 PM

April 29

Douglas Park
Field House
1401 S. Sacramento

August 19

North Park Village
Community Room
5801 N. Pulaski Road

May 27

Humboldt Park
Field House
1440 N. Sacramento

December 9

South Shore Cultural Center
7059 S. South Shore Drive

For more information call 311 or visit our website: www.cityofchicago.org/bacp

Richard M. Daley
Mayor
City of Chicago

Norma I. Reyes
Commissioner
Department of Business Affairs and Consumer Protection